

Sunday Life

What's your purpose in life?

WORDS WORTH By Mons Romulo- Tantoco (The Philippine Star) Updated February 28, 2010 12:00 AM

We all live busy lives. And sometimes between all our activities, responsibilities, deadlines, problems and exciting places to see, it is easy to forget to listen to God and let Him into our hearts so He can guide us to know what our purpose in life is. We all go through different stages in our lives. When I was in high school I was occupied with my first crush, what course to take in college and what school to go to. Then when college came I started dreaming of having a successful career in fashion and marriage was farthest from my mind but all that was all suddenly put on the side when I met my husband Sander. I then realized that we can keep planning what we think we want to happen but we have to keep our hearts open for changes. For as long as we have our Lord in our hearts keeping in mind what and where He wants us to go, wherever He takes us we can be assured that it is the right path and that He will take us to our true purpose in life.

Frenchie Dy, singer/actress

My purpose in life is to give help to those who are in need, to entertain people with my talent, to resonate love and care to perform all my duties and responsibilities to my family, and to leave this world in peace.

Calvin Millado, singer/actor/host

My purpose in life is to be a good father and husband to my family, to share my talent with people and to be a righteous individual.

Joel Trinidad, actor

My purpose in life is to leave this world a little bit better than when I arrived. Failing that, I'd like to be able to move objects with my mind.

Thea Tadiar, actress

My purpose in life right now is to raise my children in a loving and nurturing way, helping them to become responsible, caring, open, creative and happy people. And when they're all grown up, I'll have to find a new purpose!

Felix rivera, actor

My purpose in life is to open hearts and minds to the beauty of life through stage and music.

Rachel Alejandro, singer/actress

I have been singing professionally now for most of my life. There are days when I am less than inspired but when I see people smile, laugh and even cry with me when I am performing in a play, I realize that it's what I was created to do.

Aiza Seguerra, singer/songwriter/actress

My purpose in life — magpasaya ng tao.

View previous articles of this column.